

- It includes a review of present and historical land uses and preliminary tests of places that are suspect.
- A Phase I study is required to support a claim to be an Innocent Purchaser.