

- The N applied at topdressing is critical since it affects the number of seeds per head and seed size. Cost-share is available for late winter split applications of N.